Université de Route de l'Aéroport Km 0.5 BP 1169 .3029 Sfax, Sfax, Tunisia

Greetings from Koç University!

We wanted to get in touch with you at the start of this New Year to let you and your students know of the opportunities to pursue their graduate studies at Koç University, in Istanbul, in the Fall of 2017.

We would appreciate it if you could help advertise our 2017 call for Master's and PhD students (deadline June 2017 for most programs) for which we are sending you flyers and other relevant documents. We kindly ask you to inform any students you think may be interested in pursuing their studies at our university. We would also love to hear from you if you have any questions about our programs.

We are looking for students who have successfully acquired a bachelor's degree and want to pursue a masters or doctorate degree in their area of interest. We offer full scholarships that include a full tuition waiver, monthly stipend, free accommodation and private health insurance to our accepted graduate students.

Koç University, located in Istanbul, Turkey, is ranked #8 in the world's best small universities and #36 in the world's best universities under 50 years old by Times Higher Education and offers all graduate programs in English.

We thank you kindly for your time and assistance.

Best regards,
